Q. What is trap state in FA ?

Ans.  If a transition leads to a state from which it can never escape. such a state is called a trap state.

For example:

In DFA below, state C is a trap state. From C no input is going to another state.

Trap state